

When I was in the East I called in to see the clothing manufacturers, and what I saw set me to thinking.

Say, if the war in Europe keep up for another year or two, the wearers of Men's and Boys' clothing will be going around town here dressed in overalls. The stocks of woollens are being so rapidly exhausted that the supply of clothing cannot last much longer, and take it from me, every man in Honolulu who can do so should buy two or three suits right now. This is no joke. But I am telling you now, September first, to get busy and buy these suits today, and be sure you get them from the

QUICK LUNCH AT HEINIE'S

While you are maddly waving your hat and shouting lustily for your favorite horse to beat the rest to the wire, you will also be working up a pretty husky appetite, and the best way to satisfy your food craving is to go over to Heinie's Tavern, "on the Beach at Waikiki," for your lunch and refreshments.

Heinie's will serve a Quick Lunch with real Quick Service from 11:30 a. m. to 3 p. m. Monday.

Now, for tonight, while the racing fever is still raging and exciting race will be run over and over again tonight, on "conversational" track between bites as you taste Heinie's Dinner par excellence. Dinner, 6 and 8 p. m.

To be sure and make your dinner reservations early as you may find at the last moment you are just too late.—Adv.

SUGAR STOCKS SCORE ADVANCE IN GOOD MARKET

Further advances were scored today in local sugar stocks. This was noticeable in all that were at all active. The market was stronger and business was but a little smaller than the two preceding days. Sales between boards were 2425 shares and at the session 245 shares. Olua was easily the leader in activity and McBryde was much sought. All sales of the former were 18 and the latter rose from 11 to 11 3/4. Ewa sold up from 24 to 24 1/2, Pioneer 40.50, Onomea 53 1/2, Hawaiian Commercial 51, Oahu advanced from 32 1/4 to 32 1/2, and Waiialua was 33.50. Hawaiian Pineapple was off a quarter to 43 1/4 and Oahu Railway was 160. Notice was given that Hawaiian Agricultural Company is now on a $30 par basis and it was quoted 42 1/2 bid 50 asked. The last sale under the old par valuation was $25.

Unlisted securities were also active. Mineral Products recovered to 85 cents on reports of good news from the property, sales being 1200 shares. Engels Copper was in demand, 2 1/2 shares selling at $2.45 and Honolulu Oil was firm, 1000 shares selling at $3.07 1/2. Tipperary was held for 8 cents.
